2. The DCI briefed the Board on the recent Appellate Court decision on the Marchetti case, including his discussion with USIB on the question of individual agencies bringing their security agreement procedures more in line with the Agency's.

3. The DCI brought to the attention of the Board the President's recent laudatory remarks on CIA's role in the Government's operations against narcotics. Governor Rockefeller raised the question of whether even the most diligent efforts could prevent meaningful quantities of drugs reaching this country, to which the DCI replied with some statistics on heroin bulk and values.

4. The Director gave the Board a brief account of procedures he has put into effect in connection with the intelligence community's responsibilities in SAL verification.

5. The DCI showed and demonstrated to the Board an exemplar of the explosive letters Arab terrorists have been sending through the mail recently, like the one which killed an Israeli diplomat in London.

6. Mr. Pace asked about the state of the '74 budget, recalling that the DCI's responsibility in this regard with respect to the 5 November directive constituted one of the climactic moments of his community year. The DCI pointed out that the National Intelligence Program Memorandum (NIPM) was in the process of being completed and that a copy would be sent to the Board as soon as he had dispatched it to OMB and the President. Mr. Pace, with the Board agreeing, thought that the Board might very well be helpful in community budgetary matters and the Chairman stated that the December meeting of the Board would include a full opportunity for the DCI to present and discuss this budget.
